DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's remarks filed 12/12/00 have been entered and carefully considered. Applicant's arguments are not found persuasive of patentability for reasons set forth herein below.

Election/Restrictions

2. This application contains claims 1-21 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 4. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 22-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kishi et al (5447785), as set forth in the last action.

Applicant has not amended the claims in an attempt to overcome the prior art. Applicant's arguments filed 12/12/00 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Kishi does not disclose a binder distributed in a linear manner to maintain yarn flatness. It is the examiner's position that Kishi utilizes a binder for this purpose in the form of a sizing agent. The examiner notes the definition of a sizing agent found in Fairchild's Dictionary of Textiles: "a generic term for compounds applied to yarns or fabric to improve their...stiffness." Kishi is concerned with maintaining yarn flatness. To accomplish this Kishi discloses the use of various compounds to make the yarns stiffer and therefore reduce their tendency to twist (col. 10, lines 1-55). The examiner notes that applicant's claims do not require the use of any particular types of binder, nor does applicant's specification preclude the use of the compositions taught by Kishi to be used as said binder. Said rejection is maintained from the last action.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
